AN INDIVIDUAL MEMBER OF STAFF'S DECISIONS REGARDING THEIR DRESS SHOULD BE ADVISED BY:

- The nature of their class environment, their time tabled activities and the needs of pupils they teach
- The fact that they may need to assist a colleague who works in a different class with different pupils
- The fact that staff take pupils into the community on a regular basis

The only exceptions to the above are members of staff whose job descriptions do not involve manual handling, physical intervention activities and delivery of teaching and learning activities
